

Access & Equity Policy & Procedure

Purpose

This Policy supports Stride Learning's provision of a physical, working, learning and social environment that enables and enhances the educational and employment experience of students with a disability on the same basis as other members of the community, in an environment that values diversity, is free from harassment and unlawful discrimination and promotes equality of opportunity.

All staff and contractors employed or engaged by Stride Learning are expected to comply with this policy.

Policy

1. Our Commitment

1.1 Stride Learning is committed to promoting and implementing the principles of:

- Disability Discrimination Act (1992) (Cth);
- Disability Standards for Education (2005) (Cth);
- Age Discrimination Act (2004) (Cth);
- Sex Discrimination Act (1984) (Cth);
- Anti-Discrimination Act (1977);
- Fair Work Act (2009) (Cth); and
- Disability Services Act (1993).

1.2 This Policy outlines the rights and responsibilities of staff and students in relation to:

- students who have a disability, either temporary or permanent;
- associates of students who have a disability, including carers; and
- Stride Learning's application of the principle of reasonable adjustment to ensure fair and inclusive treatment for students who have a disability.

1.3 Stride Learning does not discriminate against people on the basis of age, race, colour, religion, ancestry, national origin, age, gender, sexual orientation, marital status, veteran status or physical or intellectual disability in the recruitment of students or the implementation of its policies, procedures and activities. Sexual harassment is prohibited.

1.4 Stride Learning is committed to:

- providing equal opportunity and promoting inclusive practices and processes for all students and clients within the limits of its resources; and
- integrating the principles of access and equity in its policies and procedures for students, clients and stakeholders.

1.5 These principles are applied in the development and implementation of all learning and assessment strategies and the process in which students are supported in their enrolment and progression.
