

Student Withdrawals and Refunds Policy & Procedure

Purpose

This policy and procedure sets out the circumstances under which Students withdrawing (i.e. cancelling) from a course may claim for a full or part refund of any fees or charges incurred from any of Stride Learning's below RTOs.

- J2S Training Solutions Pty Ltd (TOID: 90940)
- Aurora Training & Professional Services Pty Ltd (TOID: 90966)
- Work Savvy Training (TOID: 91778)

Policy

Stride Learning maintains a fair and reasonable refund policy to ensure that refunds are made available to Students entitled to receive them. It is the policy of Stride Learning that all applicable refunds for fees are paid to Students who pay tuition fees directly to Stride Learning and who cancel their enrolment, withdraw from any Stride Learning program or unit or defer or take Leave of Absence.

Stride Learning does not put in place financial nor administrative barriers for any Student wishing to withdraw, regardless of the Student's funding arrangement.

In instances where Stride Learning ceases to offer a course, it will ensure that the impacted Students will receive credit transfer in a replacement course through issuing Statements of Attainment for part of the course successfully completed.

Should a withdrawn Student elect to re-enrol in their previous course or an alternative course at Stride Learning, Stride Learning will only accept the Student's application with clear written permission by the Student and/or parent/guardian in the event of an under 18 years of age Student.

Students are advised about their rights to withdraw and any refund arrangement through both the Student Handbook and on the website, through publishing of this Policy & Procedure

Procedure

Applications for course cancellation must be made in writing to Stride Learning's Manager, Student Engagement Officer.

1. Refund Entitlements

- All enrolments have a 5-day cooling off period (5 days from date of enrolment).
- Cancelling outside of the 5- business day cooling off period but prior to commencement date of course will result in a cancellation fee of $200 (or full course fee if enrolment fee is less than $200).

Student Withdrawals and Refunds Policy & Procedure

- Cancelling within the first 5 calendar days of the course commencing will result in a cancellation fee of $200 (or full course fee if enrolment fee is less than $200).
- Any Student cancelling outside of the first 5 calendar days of course commencement will result in the Student being held liable for the entire course fee.
- Books and other learning materials must be returned (in original condition) or Student will incur full costs with no refund applicable.
- Course fees are not transferrable to any other individual.
- All course fees will be refunded if Stride Learning cancels or postpones course commencement by more than four weeks, unless alternative arrangements can be made which are acceptable to the Student. Such arrangements may include transfer of enrolment to an alternative course.
- In the unlikely event of Stride Learning ceasing operations, Students will be issued with a Statement of Attainment for all successfully completed units, and will receive a full refund of any incomplete units of competency.

2. Special Circumstances

- Stride Learning will only consider applications for a refund outside of the above entitlements where there are special circumstances. To assist Students with making their application the following definitions and guidelines are to be applied in determining special circumstances:
 - Special circumstances which would make it impracticable for the person to complete the requirements for the unit of study may include:
 - medical circumstances;
 - family circumstances;
 - personal circumstances;
 - employment related circumstances; and/or
 - course related circumstances.
- Special circumstances need to be:
 - beyond a person's control; AND
 - do not make their full impact until on or after the course commencement date in question; AND
 - make it impracticable for a person to complete the requirements for the course.

Review of Decision

- Where Stride Learning makes a decision NOT to refund a Student, that decision may be subject to review.

Student Withdrawals and Refunds Policy & Procedure

- If a Student is not satisfied with the decision made by Stride Learning, the Student may apply, within 28 days of the receipt of the original decision, for a review of the decision. The application for review must:
 - be made within 28 days of receipt of the original decision;
 - use Stride Learning Grievance, Complaints and Appeals process (available on Stride Learning’s website and in the Student Handbook).
- Stride Learning will review the matter in accordance with its Grievance, Complaints and Appeals Policy and Procedure, also available on Stride Learning’s website and in the Student Handbook.
